

CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY MONTH WITH

GOSPEL VESPER

AT HANOVER CHURCH 2017

SUNDAY, FEB. 19, AT 4 P.M.

FEATURED ARTISTS:

The Twin Poets of Delaware — Twin brothers Nnamdi Chukwuocha and Al Mills, named the 17th Poets Laureate of Delaware, offer their original poems on gun violence, poverty, drugs, and the criminal justice system. They have been featured on HBO's "Def Poetry Jam," BET's "Lyric Cafe," and NPR's "Poetic License."

Melodic Movements dance troupe — a group of young, talented dancers. Melody Dale, founder and director

The Hanover Choir — choral offerings of gospel, spiritual and African melody

Soloists Taralynn Dillard, Brian Gray, and Akeira Cramer — vocal styles ranging from old-school gospel to spirituals to contemporary gospel. Akeira was a 2015 Grammy Amplifier winner.

Dr. Amanda Kemp and Michael Jamanis — a dynamic performance that joins passionate recitations with movement and virtuoso music. They travel the country for performances and workshops that intertwine African-American history and culture with a wide mix of music — spirituals, gospel, classical, and improvisation.

Hanover Presbyterian Church, 18th Street and Baynard Blvd., Wilmington
302-658-5114 • www.hanoverchurch.org

Admission is free; an offering will benefit Hanover's Continuing Education Fund
Hanover Church is handicapped accessible.