

Peace Week Delaware Hanover Presbyterian Church

Hanover Presbyterian Church has made a tradition of holding an interfaith discussion during Peace Week Delaware. Our 2021 offering, Lessons from COVID, will give us the opportunity to tell our personal stories of the COVID era, what we may have learned from our experiences, and how our learning may have been shaped by our faith tradition or other life-guiding principles. A few community leaders will start with their own stories and traditions in the whole group. Then we will break into small groups to share and discuss our own stories.

Date and Time: Sunday, October 10, 1:30 to 3:15 P.M.

Platform: Because people have different safety needs, we are planning on a hybrid format, both in person (bring a mask, just in case) and virtual. We will be using the Zoom meeting platform for those joining virtually. Zoom gives you the ability to call in to the discussion. However, if you have a device with good audio and video, you might have a better sense of being with the group.

COVID guidelines keep changing, and we may have to change our format. We will notify all who have registered for this discussion about any changes, including changes to the format.

Discussion guidelines: Everyone will have the opportunity to share; no-one will be required to share. Mutual respect and consideration of others are essential.

Location and entrance: Hanover Presbyterian Church is at 1801 N. Jefferson St. in Wilmington. The building is shaped like a piece of pie—it comes to a point at 18th St., where Jefferson and Baynard Blvd. almost meet. Two entrances will be open on Jefferson St: the two sets of double red doors. One entrance will be labeled: elevator. Someone will be stationed by the elevator to help passengers get to the correct floor. There will also be a guide at the other entrance. There are accessible restrooms.

Parking: All of Hanover's parking is on-street. There are no meters, and on Sundays one can park in any legal space with no time limits (check posted signs for handicapped spaces and other legalities).

Immediately after the discussion, we can join the March for a Culture of Peace, the final event of the Peace Week. The March will start in the part of Brandywine Park that is directly across 18th Street from Hanover Church

We hope to see you at Hanover on October 10.
