

Events Schedule

Sunday, January 9, 11:00am: A New Thing Begins

The worship service will be led by members of the committee and congregation as we recall stepping out on our own from First Presbyterian Church in 1772. Special reception following the service.

Sunday, March 27, 11:00am: A New Thing from A New Thing

Members of the Female Harmony Society will lead worship in recognizing the new thing they created in 1814, and the legacy that remains to this day. Special reception following the service.

Sunday, May 22, 11:00am: A New Thing That's Not

The Rev. Canon Lloyd Casson will lead our worship service in recalling Hanover's consistent commitment to peace and justice. Special reception following the service.

Sunday, September 25, 11:00am: A New Thing...Again

Revs. Brooke Scott and Andy Jacob will lead worship as we celebrate our adventure to determine the possibility of creating a new worshipping community. Special reception following the service.

Sunday, October 16; 11:00am: A Musical Worship Service Through the Arts

Recognizing Hanover's love for music and rich musical history, the worship service will be led by musicians, soloists, and, of course, the choir. Special reception following the service.

Saturday, October 22: The 250th Celebratory Banquet at Ed Oliver's

At 5:30pm the doors open for fellowship and appetizers, with dinner being served at 6:00pm. The keynote speaker is still being confirmed, but will not disappoint!

Sunday, October 23; 11:00am: The New Things Yet to Come...

The Stated Clerk of the PC(USA), the Rev. Dr. J. Herbert Nelson II, has been confirmed as our worship leader and preacher. It is a rare, and yet befitting, honor to welcome him to Hanover. Special reception following the service.

Please join us as we celebrate 250 years of service here in Wilmington.
